

OPEN PLAY

RULES AND GUIDELINES

House Rules

- All Players must register ahead of time at delcoturfandpickle.com
- We are all here to have fun, be respectful of others while on the court.
- We reserve the right to dismiss overly emotional players from Open Play.
- When Open Play is over, please clean up after yourself and don't forget your belongings.

Basic Rules for Court Movement

- Courts 6, 7, 8 & 9 are reserved for Open Play.
- Play one game to 11 points, win by 2. The losing team must rotate off.
- Winning partners can stay on the court for a maximum limit of 2 consecutive games. If you win a game, you stay on the court for a second game.
- After playing 2 consecutive games, winners must rotate off the court if there are people waiting to play
- Wait your turn for a court in your experience/skill level. Don't play above or below your experience/skill level because the line is shorter.
- Novice players on lower numbered courts (6 & 7). More experienced players on higher numbered courts (8 & 9).
- When there are more courts than players, there is no need to rotate.
- When a game finishes, shout "open court", and exit the court.
